2018 SUMMER SHAKESPEARE REGISTRATION FORM

Summer Shakespeare at MST - Rice Village

R+J: The Original Young Adult Story

By William Shakespeare, adapted by Jonathan Gonzalez
2540 Times Blvd., Houston, Texas 77005

Romeo & Juliet, one of the most iconic stories in literature, stands unique in the Shakespeare canon. It shows the tragedy of regular people, rather than kings, queens, or emperors; people with quotidian lives and common concerns. Teens in Romeo & Juliet could easily be the teens of today, wrapped up in the worries of their families and the concerns of their friends. Main Street Theater's production will have a modern setting and a modern style while keeping the original language. Together, the director and actors will examine all the reasons why the Capulet and Montague families failed their children. We will explore all the conventions of some popular Young Adult novels, and the actors will provide their input and experience as young adults to shape the structure of how we tell this paradigmatic story, from costumes to scene cuts to creating character-driven video blogs and social media feeds which may be seen onstage during the production. This experience will also give our actors an opportunity to delve into the versatility and universality of Shakespeare's storytelling as it relates to their own lives.
